

*Pitlochry
Church of Scotland*

*10 March 2019
at 10.30am*

Welcome to our Service of Worship which will be led by Ginnie Wilkie

*Our reader is David Cruikshank
& our organist is Gordon Mackenzie*

Welcome

A warm welcome is extended to all, especially those who are worshipping at Pitlochry as a visitor or returning after an absence. We thank you for choosing to join us today and trust you will be comfortable in our midst. If you are joining us as a visitor, please make yourself known to the Minister or one of the Duty Elders. It would also be great if you signed our visitors' book.

The Church is fitted with a loop system. If you use a hearing aid, please change it to the "T" setting.

Both Words only and Large Print copies of CH4 are available in the Porch. Please ask someone on welcome duty if you require one.

COFFEE TIME

Tea, Coffee and Juice are served in The Tryst (the church halls) - after the service. An invitation is extended to all as we gather to meet and mingle. Please do join us if you are visitors for this time of friendship and fellowship.

Tryst for Prayer

Tryst for Prayer meet weekly on Wednesdays at 10.00am in The Tryst Lounge.

Open to all.

Prayers are offered for personal, local, national & international situations. If you would like someone to pray for you and your situation just let us know – every personal situation is held in confidence.

Email: thetryst@btconnect.com or drop a note through the letter box of the church marked – For Prayer, or speak to the minister after the service on Sundays.

Welcome and Church News

Call to Worship:

L: It is good for us to be here

P: There are many good things in our lives, and it is right to show gratitude.

L: There are many worrying things in our lives, and it is right to look for help.

There are many frightening things within us and around us, and it is right to seek hope and confidence.

L: It is a good thing for Christian people to be reminded of the things of Christ, and to see our lives in relation to the providence and grace of the God and Father of our Lord.

Hymn: CH4 378 (Gerontius)

Praise to the Holiest in the height

On which the Prince of Glory died,
My riches gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Our Father,
who art in heaven
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our debts
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom,
the power
and the glory,
forever ... Amen.

Looking for help/advice

Rev Sharon Colvin, retired minister of Airdrie: Jackson, has contacted us to ask for some help in securing a reasonably priced room for her son from March to October, while he is in Pitlochry for the Summer Season at the theatre.

If you have a room you would be willing to give him access to, as a place to lay his head and store his clothes, please contact the Rev Mary Haddow on 01796 472774 or email MHaddow@churchofscotland.org.uk
Equally, if you know of a place offering a room, that he could contact, please let Mary know.
